

New CD Release: The RIEGER ORGAN of St Marylebone Parish Church Gavin Roberts

This exciting new release profiles the fine Austrian Rieger Organ at St Marylebone Parish Church. In an eclectic programme designed to showcase the versatility and colours of this fine instrument, Gavin Roberts and the organ are equally at home in Bach's great Prelude and Fugue in C Major BWV 547, as Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance March No.4. This recording takes a tour of some of the finest European composers for the organ of the last five centuries.

The 1987 Rieger organ is the product of a landmark collaboration between St Marylebone Parish Church and the Royal Academy of Music, whose premises are situated across the road from the church.

Gavin Roberts began his musical education as a Chorister at Magdalen College, Oxford. He went on to read Music at Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge, where he also held the organ scholarship. Following this, Gavin gained a distinction in a Master's degree from King's College London.

Since 2002, Gavin has held the position of Assistant Director of Music at St Marylebone Parish Church. This work is also linked to the neighbouring St Marylebone School for Girls where he is Organist and Choirmaster.

Gavin is in demand as a soloist, accompanist and teacher on both Piano and Organ. He has played for The Hanover Band, The Chandos Chamber Choir, EXAUDI, The Joyful Company of Singers, The Guildford Chamber Choir, Londinium, The Orlando Chamber Choir, Orpheus Britannicus, Riverside Opera, Eastern Opera, Barnet Choral Society and Dorking Choral Society. He has appeared regularly on Radio broadcasts, often giving première performances of new works. He has played on numerous recordings for the BBC, ASV, Guild and Priory Records. Recital work has taken him to many prestigious venues around the UK and abroad. He also actively pursues an interest in piano accompaniment and chamber performance with a number of instrumentalists and singers. Gavin teaches at Junior Department of the Royal Academy of Music, Cambridge University and at the Tiffin School for Boys.
