

St Marylebone welcomes a new Priest Pastor

The Revd Katy Hacker Hughes has been appointed Priest Pastor of St Marylebone with Holy Trinity, St Marylebone.

Mother Katy will begin her work at St Marylebone at the beginning of September 2019.

Mthr Katy is a widely experienced priest with 27 years of varied ministry and has worked in healthcare chaplaincy, rural and urban parishes, a prison and a cathedral. Katy is presently Vicar of St Paul's, Lorrimore Square, in the Diocese of Southwark.

She writes: "I am excited by the invitation to join the team at St Marylebone Parish Church as Priest Pastor. Pastoral and community relationships, healing and wholeness, have, for me, been at the heart of 25 years of ministry as a priest. I am looking forward to meeting the team, congregation and wider community associated with St Marylebone, enjoying its musical tradition, beauty and fascinating history, and being part of its vision for the future."

Mother Katy will work three days a week and two Sundays a month.
